The ICSP Model

A School Psychologist holding an eligible license in an ICSP member state

The School Psychologist applies for a license in another ICSP member state

The ICSP Information Exchange System validates the held license and transfers data to the new state

The Remote State issues the closest equivalent license after Background check, fee, etc.